

NANCY WIENER
GALLERY

NEW YORK, NY, March 10, 2011--

INDIAN AND SOUTHEAST ASIAN SCULPTURE, JEWELRY, AND WORKS ON PAPER.

A selection of rare objects, from monumental stone sculpture to delicately painted Indian miniatures will be on display at 39 East 78th Street, suite 603, New York, NY 10023.

Highlights include:

- An outstanding 11th century stone stele depicting Avalokiteshvara, the bodhisattva of compassion from Bihar, India.
- An evocative early 18th century Mughal painting depicting Noble visitors paying homage to a female ascetic.
- A powerful 5th century terra cotta of the Lion headed avatar of Vishnu, Narashimha.
- A superbly carved 6th century torso of a male deity from the Mekong Delta.
- A lively 18th century Ivory depicting a female Tabla (drum) player.

NANCY WIENER exhibiting at Trezza

39 East 78th Street, suite 603

March 16—24.

Gallery hours: 11AM—7PM and by appointment

OPEN HOUSE: March 16th, 1—8:30.

Artworks from the NANCY WIENER Gallery can be seen in the collections of major museums including the Metropolitan Museum of Art, Asia Society, the Los Angeles County Museum, the National Gallery of Australia, and the Asian Civilizations Museum in Singapore, as well as numerous important private collections throughout the world.

Please visit our new website: www.nancywienergallery.com.